

Links and sources for Talking Points #5: Germany's Energy Revolution (‘Energiewende’) is working

August 2022

Beyond Nuclear

Regular Updates from Clean Energy Wire

2022

Akshat Rathi, Will Mathis, Germany Quitting Nuclear Doesn't Doom the Energy Transition, Bloomberg, January 11, 2022

Markus Wacket, Zuzanna Szymanska, Germany aims to get 100% of energy from renewable sources by 2035, Reuters, February 28, 2022

Benjamin Wehrmann, Wind, solar and other renewables cover 54% of Germany's power consumption in early 2022, CLEW, March 28, 2022

Guy Chazan, Joe Miller, Why Germany is resisting calls to ease energy crunch by restarting nuclear power, Financial Times, April 20, 2022.

Zia Weise, Why Germany won't give up on giving up nuclear, Politico, April 28, 2022

Benjamin Wehrmann, Offshore wind farm balancing German power grid seen as energy transition "milestone", CLEW, May 20, 2022.

Sören Amelang, Kerstine Appunn, Benjamin Wehrmann, Julian Wettengel, War in Ukraine: Tracking the impacts on German energy and climate policy, CLEW, August 3, 2022

2021

Neil Overy, Neither Climate nor Jobs: Nuclear Myths about the Just Transition, Heinrich Böll Stiftung, February 2021

Nikolaus Muellner et al, Nuclear Energy — the solution to climate change? Energy Policy, August 2021.

Ben Wealer et al., Kernenergie und Klima, Zenodo, October 16, 2021 (includes section in English)

Ian Bateson, Nuclear power: Are energy price hikes prompting a German rethink? Deutsche-Welle, October 25, 2021

Kerstine Appunn, Q&A: Why is Germany phasing out nuclear power and why now?, Clean Energy Wire, December 28, 2021.

2020

Nikos Tsafos, In Defense of the Energiewende, Center for Strategic & International Studies, August 24, 2020

2019

Erik Kirschbaum, Germany to close all 84 of its coal-fired power plants, will rely primarily on renewable energy, Los Angeles Times, January 26, 2019

Ben Wealer et al., High-priced and dangerous: nuclear power is not an option for the climate-friendly energy mix, DIW Berlin, 2019

2017

Dimitri Pescia, Emi Ichyanagi, The Energiewende in a nutshell, Agora Energiewende, March 2017

2016

Lee Buchsbaum, Germany's Energiewende at a new turning point, Researchgate, March 2016.

Dae-Han Song, Germany: Renewable gains, won by people's power, face corporate threat, Greenleft, August 23, 2016

Jeffrey Michel, Germany sets a new solar storage record, Energy Post, July 18, 2016

Craig Morris, Germany already has more green power than it ever had nuclear, Renew Economy, August 26, 2016

Andreas Kramer, Energy in the G20 Finance Track, CIGI, September 2016.

2015

Conrad Kunze, Paul Lehmann, The myth of the dark side of Germany's Energiewende, Renew Economy, February 18, 2015.

Kerstine Appunn, Pulling the plug on nuclear, Clean Energy Wire, December 10, 2015

2014

Daniel Mittler, Why the rise in lignite use in Germany does not prove the Energiewende is failing, Unearthed, January 10, 2014

Paul Gipe, Feed-In Tariffs Are Best Tool for Reducing Greenhouse Gas Emissions, The Planning Report, June 30, 2014

2012

Volker Quaschnig, Why Solar Power Spells Doom for Conventional Baseload Power Plants, Heinrich Böll Stiftung, March 5, 2012

Paul Hockenos, Angst or Arithmetic? Why Germans are so Skeptical about Nuclear Energy, Heinrich Böll Stiftung, May 2012